

Safety Self-Assessments Workers' Compensation Program Evaluation

Assess your WC program:

Identify where each of your locations needs improvement.

- Take the assessment to identify strengths and weaknesses in 10 key cost areas of workplace practices.
- Get your initial score which provides a universal yardstick using criteria that embody widely used concepts in WC, much like a credit score!

Find out which areas of your WC program need the most attention:

Get immediate feedback and recommendations for improvement on your program.

- It tells you what to do and how to move to the action stage.
- The assessment & recommendation phase used to take 6 months or more, but now it takes only 1 hour.

LEVEL 1 ASSESSING YOUR PRACTICES	Recommendations for Improvement	Score
1. Management Commitment	Assessment Criteria and Status Information	85
2. Insurance Co. & Claims Management Controls	First Injury Response	85
3. Performance Goals	WC Loss Management	85
4. First Injury Response	First, Absent and Returning	85
5. Communication	Medical Management	85
6. Supervision & Training of Employees	Management Commitment and Assessment	85
7. Medical Case Management	Communication	85
8. Medical Case Management	Return to Work and Transitional Duty	85
9. Fraud, Abuse & Mismanagement	Medical Case Management	85
10. Training Objectives	Training Objectives	85
11. Training Objectives	Performance Goals	85
12. Training Objectives	Medical Case Management	85

Track your progress and show score improvement:

Show management how your cost reductions strategies have helped save money.

- It provides the ability to measure incremental improvement of your WC program.
- Demonstrate upward trend of how far you and your locations has come since beginning the process.

Tools for your Multi-site locations:

Best-to-Worst Ranking

See where you should focus your efforts immediately.

- *Ranks all business units and provides an average for the company.
- *This allows you to provide assistance to operations needing it most.

Best Practice Profile

This profile lets companies' pinpoint problem areas in multi-location management.

- * Provides a list of what the problem areas are and how WIDESPREAD they are.
- * Training learning objectives can be set with this profile

Gap Analysis

Identify common Workers' Comp areas of concern: Company wide

- *Find out what locations have similar recommendations for improvement.
- *Use as a quick reference to your multi-location concerns.

Increase Your Score to Cut Your Costs

